Restaurant guide created by Lia Olsborg for use by the Boston Science Fiction conventions of Arisia and Boskone. Thanks go out to Mary Fitzgerald and JoAnn Cox who have done a lot of leg work in the past to perfect the listings and information. Thank you also to the many other people over the years who have contributed to the creation and bettering of this guide. 1/11/2013

Welcome to the Boston Seaport. Let's Eat!

You've made it! Those of you new to the area will be forgiven for half expecting a tumbleweed to roll by as you parked in some far off surface lot. At first glance, the Seaport area doesn't seem to offer much to tame your growling stomach, but take heart. There are many tasty provisions to be found in the hotel and just a short walking distance away. So drop your bags in the room, grab your badge at registration, and rest easy that there are plenty of options to eating meals out of the con suite.

This year the establishments in this guide are alphabetized within the neighborhood are that they are in: Chinatown, Waterfront, and South Boston. Some areas of the city have a greater concentration of places to eat than others, and we encourage you to explore beyond what this guide may list. While our listings have expanded this year based on past feedback, this is merely a starting point for your culinary adventures.

While we make every effort to provide accurate information, the convention cannot guarantee the hours, offerings, or quality of any independent establishment. Phone numbers and websites are included with listings where available. If you have specific questions or concerns regarding any of our listings, we suggest you phone ahead.

Getting Around Boston

Automobile

Frankly, we recommend walking, taking the subway or bus to get to food. Parking is often expensive and open meters can be hard to find, not to mention contending with traffic on the way to your destination.

Public Transit (Subway and Bus)

If you take the subway while you're here, you'll be on the Silver Line which connects to the airport and South Station. Subway fare is $2.50 ($2 with Charlie Card) per trip. Daily ($11) and weekly ($18) passes are also available. Children under 11 ride on public transportation for free when accompanied by a paying adult.

Charlie cards can be obtained from MBTA sales offices in South Station, North Station, Downtown Crossing, Back Bay, and Harvard stations.

There are a number of bus lines that stop in the seaport area within walking distance to the Westin. They are: 11, 171, 4, 448, 449, 459, 7
Bus fare is $2 per trip ($1.50 with Charlie Card).

The T runs approximately 5:30a–12:30a. Complete bus, subway, and commuter rail maps, schedules, and fare information are available online at www.mbta.com.

Relevant stops on the Silver Line:

World Trade Center	Closest stop to Westin
Logan Airport
	Terminal A
	Terminal B stop 1, Terminal B stop 2
	Terminal C
	Terminal E
South Station	Red Line, Commuter Rail, Amtrak, Connect to Bus Terminal

Taxi

If you need a taxi, the bellman outside the hotel will call a reputable and reliable cab company for you.

Based on: www.cityofboston.gov/police/hackney/taxi_rates.asp

Official taxi fares are:

Meter Rates: $2.60 for the first 1/7th mile or less, $0.40 for each additional 1/7th of a mile, Flat Rate if applicable: $3.20 per mile.

Waiting Time: $28.00 per hour.

Additional tunnel and airport fees from Logan Airport: $8 ($2.75 airport fee, plus $5.25 tunnel toll)

South Boston

South Boston Area

Location: While the whole South Boston area technically includes the Seaport area as well, these listings are located South of the Westin. This area is bordered by Summer St. to the North, L Street to the East, Columbia Road to the South, and Old Colony Ave, Dorchester Ave, and A Street to the West.

Food Culture: Much more casual neighborhood type places to choose from here. Plenty of greasy fast food for take out and delivery, as well as a nice selection of higher quality restaurants that won't break the bank.

Unofficial Hours: Most restaurants are lunch and dinner places with brunch on the weekends. Bars stay open till 1am along with most fast food delivery places. There are a few specialty and coffee shops in the area that will be happy to provide you with a quick snack or breakfast on the run.
